MICHEL FILZI IS APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE

Paris, 10 February 2014 – Mike Rusbridge, CEO of REED EXHIBITIONS announces the appointment of MICHEL FILZI as president of REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE and REED EXHIBITIONS EUROPE SOUTH.

Michel Filzi succeeds Louis Algoud, who is retiring after devoting 43 years to organising and developing trade and consumer events, including 13 years as head of REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE and all the activities of REED EXHIBITIONS in Southern Europe (France, Italy and Spain) and the Middle East. Louis Algoud remains a Reed consultant and representative in several of its subsidiaries.

Michel Filzi, 49, is a graduate of Ecole Centrale in Paris and holds an MBA from INSEAD. After six years at ANDERSEN CONSULTING, followed by three years in the Exhibitions and Conferences department of the Paris Chamber of Commerce and Industry, he joined MILLER FREEMAN in 1998 – which became REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE in 2000 – as head of project planning reporting to the company president.

In 2001, he became head of the Environment & Healthcare Division, then integrated successively into his portfolio a variety of exhibitions in the IT, Industry, Fitness, and Food Service & Hospitality sectors.

In 2012, he was named Managing Director, in charge of the entire REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE portfolio of events.

In addition to being president of REED EXPOSITIONS FRANCE, Michel Filzi becomes president of the Europe South division of REED EXHIBITIONS, which covers Italy and Morocco.
