

Livre Paris, the biggest literary event for the general public in France, can't take place at the initially scheduled dates in March 2021.

Fully aware of the COVID-19 pandemic evolution, the Syndicat national de l'édition (the French Publishers Association) and Reed Expositions France have decided to postpone the next edition to May 2021, from the 28th to the 31st in Paris Porte de Versailles, Hall 4.
